

NOTE: You must ensure your application supports the mission and objectives of the Research Fund as listed below:

MISSION STATEMENT

OSTEOPOROSIS AUSTRALIA - ANZBMS RESEARCH FUND

Mission

‘To reduce the burden of osteoporotic fractures by;
Funding and promoting excellence and integration of all levels of Australian bone research, spanning basic science to public health approaches’

Objectives

- Support research that will help to reduce the burden of osteoporotic fractures in Australia
- Support research that will lead to improved Quality of Life and excellence in clinical care of people with osteoporosis and fractures in Australia
- Support research grants in broad areas of;
Basic science, clinical studies, public health, allied health, epidemiology & education
- Foster bone research from young investigators
- Support research that crosses several disciplines, eg. Science, Clinical Medicine, Non-Medical, Allied Health
- Support a variety of research grants from; grants-in-aid, fellowships, scholarships, general, partnership grants on a Peer-Reviewed basis