

Scholarships Search

Title	Arthritis & Osteoporosis WA PhD scholarship in Memory of John Donald Stewart
Description	Arthritis and Osteoporosis WA will fund this scholarship to be awarded under the supervision of Professor Johannes Nossent to the most outstanding PhD candidate, preferably medically trained with a special interest in rheumatology; or a candidate with a solid background in medical science/public health at a Masters level with a special interest in rheumatology. The initial PhD research area will focus on epidemiology of rheumatoid arthritis in WA with a view to expand the research area in the future.
Payment type	Fortnightly Stipend
Value	$50000
Value unit	Per annum
Basis of award	Academic Achievement
Eligibility	Applicants must meet the eligibility criteria for enrolment in a Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) at UWA, including a high level of English language proficiency. The current requirement for IELTS (Academic) is 6.5 overall, with no band less than 6.0. For further details, see: http://www.studyat.uwa.edu.au/research/admission/english-competency Application Process: All applicants must submit an Expression of Interest to Professor Johannes Nossent before 31 March 2016. This should include: (1) CV, (2) academic transcripts and (3) a cover letter. The selection committee reserves the right to close early should a suitable applicant be identified.
Nationality	Australian Citizen, Australian Permanent Resident, New Zealand Citizen
Study area	Medicine and Pharmacology, Medicine, Public Health
Commencement date	01/07/2016
Applications open	23/12/2015
Applications close	31/03/2016
Tenable At	University of Western Australia
Currently available	Yes
Application status	Open

FURTHER INFORMATION

- Conditions
- How to apply
- Contact

BACK TO RESULTS ↻

SUBSCRIBE ↻